At Elias Neocleous & Co LLC, we strive to provide bespoke legal support to individuals, families, entrepreneurs and business owners, whose personal and commercial interests are closely linked. We recognise that modern wealth is often dynamic – held across jurisdictions, corporate structures and family generations – and that effective planning must take account not only of personal wishes, but also ongoing business commitments, succession strategies and legacy value.

Our Private Client department remains committed to assisting any client whose personal and commercial affairs are interconnected, providing measured and strategic advice focused on long-term continuity. Our priority is to ensure that personal arrangements and business structures operate coherently, with clarity, resilience and effective governance.

supported by market-leading professionals consistently recognised in their fields. We are known for our deep expertise, proven results, and commitment to safeguarding and growing our clients' wealth.

Cyprus' international trust legislation and favourable non-domiciled regime offer exceptional opportunities for wealth planning. Under specific conditions, clients can benefit from significant tax exemptions on dividends and interest. Our team provides strategic advice across a full spectrum of private client needs, including:

- Private trusts, wills, and probate; International tax planning and compliance;
- Wealth management and asset protection;
- Family office creation;
- Wealth extraction from family businesses.

We work seamlessly across our offices in Cyprus and Europe, drawing on multidisciplinary expertise to deliver efficient, compliant, and cross-border solutions. Whether optimising tax, safeguarding estates, or managing complex corporate structures, we are here to help you secure and enhance your legacy.

Through our affiliated trust company services, we also offer a one-stop solution for robust, future-proof strategies tailored to your long-term objectives.

WHAT WE DO

Our Private Client team provides comprehensive advisory services to individuals, families and business owners, covering both contentious and non-contentious matters. We advise not only on personal wealth and estate planning, but also on the governance and succession considerations that arise from owning and managing a business. Our goal is to protect, manage and transfer wealth responsibly across generations, ensuring personal and commercial interests remain aligned. Our expertise includes:

- Trust establishment, management, and administration;
- Trustee advisory on fiduciary governance, regulatory compliance, discretionary powers, trust restructurings, and trustee decision-making support, including tax structuring and cross-border tax coordination;
- Wills and estate planning;
- Probate and estate administration;
- Long-term tax planning, advisory and compliance;
- Global wealth management, enabling tax-efficient movement of funds, assets, and businesses across borders;
- Asset structuring, including acquisitions, disposals, and advanced cross-border tax planning for wealth preservation;
- Family office creation and advisory;
- Wealth extraction strategies for family businesses.
